

As from the 1st April 2015 all patients will be allocated a named, accountable GP.

The named accountable GP will take lead responsibility for the co-ordination of all appropriate services delivered to each of their patients.

The service to see another GP should you so choose will remain available to you regardless of your named GP.